BOOKING

Lockhurst Hatch Farm is a listed, timber frame house, with the original portion dating back to the 16th Century. It has undergone major restoration over the last few years and is now a comfortable family home. The Bed & Breakfast accommodation is one wing of the house, comprising one bedroom, bathroom and sitting/dining room with its own staircase/hall. It is furnished to a high standard with a mix of antique and contemporary.

The bedroom has a four poster double bed, is fully carpeted and has tea and coffee making facilities, television and clock-radio. It can accommodate an additional single bed if required. There is a private landing with bathroom and the sitting/dining room has a comfortable sofa, colour television and video as well as a wood-burning stove. All rooms have central heating. Parking is adjacent to the farmyard.

Sorry - no smoking or pets.
